STANDARDS OF ETHICAL CONDUCT

Adapted from the Code of Ethics of the Education Profession in Florida and Principles of Professional Conduct for the Education Profession in Florida

I. Worth and Dignity of Every Person

- A. Our school values the worth and dignity of every person, the pursuit of truth, devotion to excellence, acquisition of knowledge, and the nurture of active citizenship.
- B. Essential to the achievement of these standards are the freedom to learn and to teach and the guarantee of equal opportunity for all.

God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them (Genesis 1:7, NASB)

II. Primary Concerns

- A. Our primary concern is for the student and for the development of the student's potential. Employees will therefore strive for professional growth and will seek to exercise the best professional judgment and integrity.
- B. Concern for the student requires that our personnel:
  - 1. Shall make reasonable effort to protect the student from conditions harmful to learning and/or to the student's mental and/or physical health and/or safety.
  - 2. Shall not unreasonably restrain a student from independent action in pursuit of learning.
  - 3. Shall not unreasonably deny a student access to diverse points of view.
  - 4. Shall not intentionally suppress or distort subject matter relevant to a student's academic program.
  - 5. Shall not intentionally expose a student to unnecessary embarrassment or disparagement.
  - 6. Shall not intentionally violate or deny a student's legal rights.
  - 7. Shall not harass or discriminate against any student on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national or ethnic origin, political beliefs, marital status, handicapping condition, sexual orientation, or social and family background and shall make reasonable effort to assure that each student is protected from harassment or discrimination.
  - 8. Shall not exploit a relationship with a student for personal gain or advantage.
  - 9. Shall keep in confidence personally identifiable information obtained in the course of professional service, unless disclosure serves professional purposes or is required by law.

Train up a child in the way he should go, even when he is old, he will not depart from it. (Proverbs 22:6, NASB)

III. Importance of Maintaining Respect and Confidence

- A. Employees of our school must display the highest degree of ethical conduct, always being aware of the importance of maintaining the respect and confidence of colleagues, students, parents, and the community.
- B. This commitment requires that our employees:
  - 1. Shall maintain honesty in all professional dealings.
  - 2. Shall not on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national or ethnic origin, political beliefs, marital status, handicapping condition if otherwise qualified, or social and family background deny to a colleague professional benefits or advantages or participation in any professional organization.
  - 3. Shall not interfere with a colleague's exercise of political or civil rights and responsibilities.
  - 4. Shall not engage in harassment or discriminatory conduct which unreasonably interferes with an individual's performance of professional or work responsibilities or with the orderly processes of education or which creates a hostile, intimidating, abusive, offensive, or oppressive environment; and, further, shall make reasonable effort to assure that each individual is protected from such harassment or discrimination.
  - 5. Shall not make malicious or intentionally false statements about a colleague.

He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you, but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? (Micah 6:8 NASB)

ADDENDUM

Training Requirement

All staff members, instructional personnel, educational support employees, and administrators are required as a condition of employment to complete training on these standards of ethical conduct.

Reporting Misconduct by Instructional Personnel and Administrators

All employees, educational support employees, and administrators have an obligation to report misconduct by instructional personnel and school administrators which affects the health, safety, or welfare of a student. Examples of misconduct include obscene language, drug and alcohol use, disparaging comments, prejudice or bigotry, sexual innuendo, cheating or testing violations, physical aggression, and accepting or offering favors.

Reports of misconduct of employees should be made directly to Principal Mary Beth Jones at (850) 380-9557 or nogratrjoy@christianinstitute.com. Reports of misconduct committed by administrators and/or Principal should be made to the CIAS School Board, principally, the Reverend Michael E. Collins (850) 324-2186 or michaeleugencollins@gmail.com. All employees and agents of CIAS have an obligation and legal responsibility to report misconduct by instructional personnel and school administrators which affects the health, safety, or welfare of a student. Failure to report misconduct may result in penalties up to termination of employment. Policies and procedures for reporting misconduct by instructional personnel or school administrators which affect the health, safety, or welfare of a student are posted in the Personnel Manual and on posters in the school office and ladies bathroom.

Reporting Child Abuse, Abandonment, or Neglect

All employees and agents have an affirmative duty, as a mandatory reporter, to report all actual or suspected cases of child abuse, abandonment, or neglect. Call 1-800-96-ABUSE or report online at: <http://www.dcf.state.fl.us/abuse/report/>

Signs of Physical Abuse

The child may have unexplained bruises, welts, cuts, or other injuries; broken bones; or burns. A child experiencing physical abuse may seem withdrawn or depressed, seem afraid to go home or may run away, shy away from physical contact, be aggressive, or wear inappropriate clothing to hide injuries.

Signs of Sexual Abuse

The child may have torn, stained, or bloody underwear, trouble walking or sitting, pain or itching in genital area, or a sexually transmitted disease. A child experiencing sexual abuse may have unusual knowledge of sex or act seductively, fear a particular person, seem withdrawn or depressed, gain or lose weight suddenly, shy away from physical contact, or run away from home.

Signs of Neglect

The child may have unattended medical needs, little or no supervision at home, poor hygiene, or appear underweight. A child experiencing neglect may be frequently tired or hungry, steal food, or appear overly needy for adult attention.

Patterns of Abuse

Serious abuse usually involves a combination of factors. While a single sign may not be significant, a pattern of physical or behavioral signs is a serious indicator and should be reported.

Liability Protections

Any person, official, or institution participating in good faith in any act authorized or required by law, or reporting in good faith any instance of child abuse, abandonment, or neglect to the department or any law enforcement agency, shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability which might otherwise result by reason of such action. (F.S. 39.203)

An employer who discloses information about a former or current employee to a prospective employer of the former or current employee upon request of the prospective employer or of the former or current employee is immune from civil liability for such disclosure or its consequences unless it is shown by clear and convincing evidence that the information disclosed by the former or current employer was knowingly false or violated any civil right of the former or current employee protected under F.S. Chapter 760. (F.S. 768.095)
