

PARENT TESTIMONIES

CIAS has been a Godsend to our family. They provided the encouragement and guidance that we needed to make homeschooling successful. Now our son is in his junior year at UWF and is on the Dean's list. Thank you so much!

You are all irreplaceable! Thank you so much for your help and encouragement to my daughter. She is excited about learning again and even looks forward to her tutoring lessons! I couldn't do it without you.

The guidance, tutoring, testing and accountability that we have received from CIAS over the last five years has been exactly what we needed to prepare our children for college and their future lives. With three finished and one more to go, we are nearing the end of our homeschooling years. Thank you, CIAS, for your help along this journey!

CIAS Class of 2015

Christian Institute of Arts & Sciences was established in 1997 as a non-public school with the Florida Department of Education. We soon incorporated as an accredited, non-profit 617 private school, working with families that home-educate their children.

CIAS now operates a full-time Campus School as well as the Umbrella School for homeschooled students and a Live-Online School on a Google Classroom platform.
